

Have what it takes to be a KooDooZ Youth Advisory Board member?

Are you...

...between the ages of 10 and 17?

...social media savvy?

...willing to share your thoughts and provide feedback?

KooDooZ.com is a virtual meets virtuous social networking site that inspires middle and high school students to participate in community events, collaborate on humanitarian causes and create socially responsible goals. Our users (KDZ) take on challenges through the KooDooZ interactive web portal and are rewarded for their achievements by earning service learning credit, product rewards or donations on behalf of a non-profit.

The mission of KooDooZ is to strengthen relations between youth and their communities by creating new programs and encouraging opportunities for youth to give back.

KooDooZ Youth Advisory Board benefits:

- Help shape a website that empowers and impacts youth
- Become a cause advocate within the categories of heart, mind, body and spirit
- Gain hands-on experience with web 2.0 technology and refine leadership skills

KooDooZ Youth Advisory Board responsibilities:

- Participate in quarterly SKYPE meetings to discuss causes, campaigns, challenges and youth issues
- Suggest ideas for KooDooZ challenges, events and/or content
- Provide feedback on existing and potential features

KooDooZ guiding principles:

- Enable ongoing relationships with caring adults
- Create safe places with structured activities during non-school hours
- Cultivate civic responsibility and civic engagement
- Help youth develop marketable skills through effective education
- Enable youth to give back to their communities through community service
